

SPECIAL ASSOCIATE SESSION

MISTI CHILDERS & BRETT TACKETT
IHEART MEDIA

This year we are offering a special session for all Associate Members who are participating in the Vendor Fair. This session will take place during the FM's first class session.

Misti Childers spent 6 years serving in the US Air Force as an Aerospace Medical Technician where she championed local, state, and federal compliance programs for healthcare delivery teams, worked as a patient advocate and customer service team leader, supervised a team of four medical technicians and was responsible for supply/logistics for a team of eight physicians.

Following this, she began her career in Broadcast Media in 2009. During her career to date, she has been recognized as a Regional Digital VIP, New Business Producer of the Year multiple times, Senior Seller in her market for 3+ years, and founded Red Couch Wednesday.

Brett Tackett is the Vice President of Digital Sales at iHeartMedia. He began his broadcast career as a news reporter in 2000 and then joined radio in 2005, working his way from Sales Manager to his current position.
